Everybody can succeed

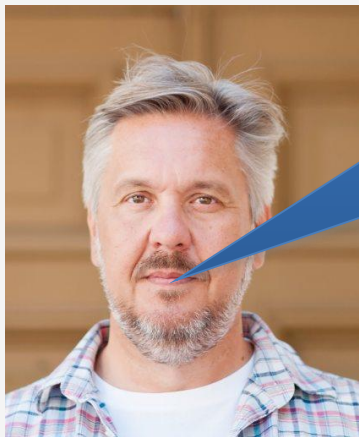

Kari Rajaorko ja Juha Lahtinen

Tampere 28.4.2016

We are focusing the questions like:

- Who are the pupils we are able to support
- How to reduce dropping out of basic education
- How to prevent exclusion
- How to reinforce pupils' school motivation and life skills
- How to complete the basic education syllabus
- How to support pupils' transition to upper secondary level and
- How to provide skills for coping with studies

Interview of the specialist

Hi Kari,
do you have bad students in your school

Of course

So stupid questions!

Learning Scoop People Are Different

... But we have a lot in common.

The profile making 1:

In three person groups:

1. Create the profile of students who might suit to Karis class (You can draw him/her, name and tell something about his/hers background)

The profile making 2:

In three person groups:

1. Create the profile of students who won't suit to Karis class (You can draw him/her, name and tell something about his/hers background)

The presentation:

In three person groups:

Present your students to "headmaster Kari" and he will make a decision if he accept the student in to his class or not.

“If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.”

Henry David Thoreau
